Ars. Wilson Opens the Flower Show; General Pershing the Guest of Honor

Left to Right-Misses Lilian L. Remsen, Carlotta Havemeyer and Sylvia R. Hillhouse, Gen. John J. Per-Auxiliary with Mrs. Drexel Dahlgreen. shing, Miss Janet Cro'l, Miss Katharine D. Porter and Mrs. Clark Fosdick.

President's Wife Presses But- Alexandre, Mrs. J. Herbert Johnston, in the tea garden. ton Throwing Open Doors of International Exhibition.

The seventh International Flower Show was opened yesterday in the Grand Cenfull Palace by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson the pressed a button at the White House Sisters of Each Attend Her which opened the doors and permitted ten disabled soldiers, who are being taught gardening at the Brooklyn Botanhad Clardens, to enter. The opening marked the resumption of the flower show after a lapse last year, caused by use of the building as a war hos-

Tran e, and was met by Mrs. Charles
A. Childis, Mrs. Price Post, Mrs. Adrian Mr. Acheson A. Harden of this city by the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires, rector of Childis, Mrs. Price Post, Mrs. Adrian sein, Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn, Mrs. dward M. House, Mr. Frederick R. whold and Gan. Wilder. He was taken

Priceless Orchids Shown.

among the exhibits and decorations which the auditorium has been transformed into a great garden holding specimens of the flora of all lands as re-reduced in the neighborhood of New York, two small single pieces were centres if interest for the large crowds on and hast night. They were orchais. Each was in earth, enclosed in a hat a very small child held without difficulty, but their value, because of impossibility of duplicating their exquisite beaut/ except by a similar chance to that which produced them, as said to be beyond measure.

ne of the orchids, the gift of the grower to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, was by her "Mavehona," which, in the speech of the Cheyenne Indians, means the princess. Its unusual beauty is enhanced by a streak of brilliant pack across one of the white petals. This erchid took eight years to flower from named the Gen. Pershing and presented Cooper Kline, daughter of the showing of orchids that had been grown was followed by a breakfast.

The specimens included many beautiful examples of the vivid color contrasts that make this flower so valuable. Some of the specimens were appreciated as politan, the Bankers, the Ardsley and the Knellwood clubs. When they return from worth $2,000 in the market.

histors on the largest scale were at 11 East Sixty-eighth street.

Mesers Adolph Lewisohn of Ardsleyon-Hudson and William Boyce Thompof Yonkers. There were entries from 'MANON' REPEATED their greenhouses in nearly all of the classes judged yesterday and they won a majority of the prizes.

Mrs. Payne Whitney Exhibits.

The largest cash prize awarded in the classes for private growers was one of covering 500 feet. An entry of Mrs. Payne Whitney won a gold medal given ance of the attractive opera was heard William H. de Graaf of Leyden, by a large audience and was evidently Holland, for the finest collection of flow- much enjoyed. Mme. Farrar, who had ering builds and bulbous rooted plants. growers renewed the rivalry between and sang her music on the whole well. two non-related Piersons, A. N. Pierson of Cromwell, Conn., and Presi- ing to her impersonation. dent F R Pierson of the village of Tarfown. Each had opposing entries in most of the classes open to them. The most important event of the show, its technical side, has been the Awards of the judges in the 500-foot garden contest. Both Pierson exlitits were a revelation of the beauty color and symmetrical form that may be attained in the adornment of a The first prize of $500 was awarded to A. N. Pierson: F. It sor won the second prize of $300.

caut.

ducted.

in box 25.

arge exhibits placed by the Departt of Parks of Manhattan and the Prospect Park Conservatories attracted much interest. The Manhattan department showed a perfect specimen of the Depenthes rafflesiana or pitrher plant. Because of Interest in the Allied Loyally League and its tea garden enterciety was largely represented in the afternoon. The garden takes up obstantial part of the third floor and been attractively decorated under of Messrs. Warren and thore. Facilities for general dancing are among the attractions of the ter

Society Is Represented.

Mrs. Childs and Mrs. Post were the Miss Mary Crocker Alexander, Miss hostesses yesterday. Assisting them Grace Vanderbilt and Mr. R. Thornton PARTS OF FOUR OPERAS SUNG. ries H. Ditson, Mrs. Edward J. Dela-Mrs. Joseph Hamblen Sears, Mrs. and Mrs. Samuel A. Welldon, Miss Mary Edward McVickar, Mrs. William H. Hoyt Wiborg, Mrs. Charles A. Childs miton, Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, Miss Sarah Cooper Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Stuart Duncan, Miss Fannle Cot-Mrs. James Roosevelt, Mrs. James H. Casimir de Rham, Mrs. Edward N Metcalf, Mrs. Adolf Ladenburg and Miss Breitung, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Clarke, Bell- B. Gurnee.

The young waitresses who served tea Mrs. George F. Baker, Jr., Mrs. Howard small tables included Mrs. J. Murray St. George, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden H. Ham-litchell, Jr., Mrs. Casimir Dea. Rham, mond, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Mrs. Misses Sylvia R. Hillhouse, Lucile Payne Whitney, Mr. Henry G. Barbey Baldwin, Gladys Livermore, Elise Ever- and Mr. Bertram Cruger. Anna Alexandre, Carlotta Have-Melissa Yuille, Augusta McCagg. Fanny Billings, Margaret Flint, Mar Earet Monell, Janet Croll, Marion Ho Minnie Richards, Helen L. John-Bulkley and Alice Lawrence. among the many patrons of the tea Hilborne L. Rooseveit, Miss Ship-Mrs Ethelbert Nevin, Mrs. Charles start for England about the first of next and Laurenti, Mr. Moranzoni conduct-Henderson, Mrs. N. Thayer Robb, month. He has sung here with the Frederick W. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Metropolitan and other opera companies. Bigelow Tilton, Mr. and Mrs. George drs. Clarence Cary, Mr. and Mrs h Meyn, Mrs. B. Aymar Sands, nedy, Mrs. Julian Robbins, Whitney, Mrs. Mortimer L.
Louise Alger, Mrs. William,
Mr. and Mrs. T. Reid Frazee have re-Kennedy, Mrs. Julian Robbins, Miss Louise Alger, Mrs. William An John J. Wysong, Mrs. Burke Roche, several months in Central Europe.

Mrs. William H. Sanos, Mrs. John E. Walter Eyre fambert will be the hosters Mrs. Prank S. Witherbee and Mr. J. with her is Lady Ashley Sparks, Mrs. Lorimer Worden. Eugene Outerbridge, Mrs. William Ross To-day will be British day, Mrs. Proctor and Miss May Moulton.

MISS WATERBURY MARRIED TO MR. ACHESON A. HARDEN

-Bride a Daughter of Mr. W. H. Waterbury.

In the chantry of St. Thomas's Church yesterday afternoon Miss Marguerite F. John J. Pershing was the guest of Waterbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. or. He entered with his aide, Col. A. | William Hampton Waterbury of 105 C Quekemeyer, who was on als staff in West Fifty-fifth street, was married to

There was a small gather the couple at the ceremony to the tea garden that has been opened by the Allied Loyalty League. Tea was served. Rear Admiral J. H. Glennon was father, wore a gown of white satin draped with chilfon and a veil of rose of the control of the cont point lace which had been worn by her mother when a bride. Mrs. Murray G. Jenkins, the bride's sister, was matron of She wore a gown of orchid colored chiffon. The other bridal attendants were Mrs. Elihu W. Fowler, and Miss Dorothy Harden, sisters of the bridegroom, and Miss Margaret Chamberiaine. They were dressed in pale blue chiffon and wore hats to correspond with their gowns.

Mr. Rose Harden, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Messrs. Muray G. Jenkins, Stanley R. Smith, Elihu W. Fowler, Lathrop Hoyt, West, Kenneth Woolson and Frank William Black

A reception for a small company in the Louis XVI, suite of the Hotel St Regis followed the ceremony Southern trip Mr. and Mrs. Harden will

Schmidlapp-Kline.

In the presence of thirty friends and relatives yesterday at noon Mrs. Frances to him, was said by expert horticultur- and Mrs. Oliver G. Cooper of Montana, is a to be the darkest specimen of cat- was married to Mr. Carl J. Schmidlapp. ya schroderne ever grown. Both vice-president of the Chase National est Orange performed by the Rev. David J. Burrell Mr. James B. Duke gave a large of the Marble Collegiate Church, and Knollwood clubs. When they return Among the private growers, the ex- a wedding trip he and his bride will live day Subscribers.

mission and Mr. Donald Blagden.

Mrs. John Aspegren in box 34.
Mr. and Mrs. M. Orme Wilson,

There were also in the audience Mr.

Casimir de Rham, Miss Helen Lee, Mrs

Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Storrs, Mr. and

Will Sing in Covent Garden.

Riccardo Martin, an American operwhen the war started. Mr. Martin will Social Notes.

Mrs. Henry Clinton Backus of 520

AYAAYAAAAAAAAAA MRS. ACHESON A. HARDEN.

HAIRY JAZZ BAND AT METROPOLITAN

BACKS UPON STAGE Massanet's Opera for Mon-Religious Musicians Come to Palace Theatre.

display of rose plants, arranged as a the Metropolitan for the first time in sisters, who came to Broadway, and growing garden, with examples of hy-Massenet's "Manon," recently given at | Once upon a time there were the Cherry collimbers and polyanthus types, 'time last evening with Miss Geraldine later there were "Don, the talking dog," and "the homeliest woman in the world," Farrar in the title role. The performbut those advents were back in the misty days of the old Rigito, when the Hamhe classes provided for commercial entation of the work, was in good voice too fast to care for mortuary records.

In action she imparted charm and feel-Theatre the House of David band. This consists of a score of musicians from a Her chief associates were again Charles Hackett as the Chevaller des religious community at Benton Harbor, Grieux, Mr. Rothier as the elder Des Mich., whose tenets forbid the cutting of Hall. The character of his programme Grieux and Mr. de Luca as the Leshair on face or head, and whose members Among the other roles Miss Frances Ingram replaced Miss Cecil believe themselves descendants of the lost tribes of Israel. The twenty Arden as Rosette, Mr. Wolff con-The newly appointed American Ambassador to Italy, Mr. Robert Underwood Johnson, Mrs. Johnson and Mr. W. view first standing with their backs to derer" fantasia. Rhinelander Stewart were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander.
Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Scott Hoyt, Mr. the audience so the latter could get the full benefit of a sight of their luxuriant Pianists neglect it. They have the manes. Then they sat down and played and Mrs. William T. Carrington and Mr. modern pieces, including the musical William S. Lower were in the Mills' box. fireworks called jazz. They took their Mr. and Mrs. William Appleton Burnwork quite seriously and so did the audiham were with Mr. and Mrs. E. Havence, which encouraged them frequently, ward Ferry in box 11.
Mr. Clarence H. Mackay's guests in Jazz is the only outlet allowed for inward waywardness by their cult-so the box 28 were Mr. and Mrs. Goodhue Livpress agent says-and they certainly ingston, Jr., Miss Katherine Mackay, made it sound like original sin. Commandant Mally of the French Com-Miss Eva Tanguay was "the big noise" at the Riverside. Miss Sophie and Mrs. W. Storrs Wells, Mr. and Tucker and William Seabury's "Frivol-Mrs. James Brown Potter and Mr. Fredics" reigh at the Colonial. The Amerierick H. Baldwin were with Mrs. Pulitzer Lady Parker of London and Mr. and Clifford as the favorites. "Heir for a Night" and McCormack and Irving were Mrs. A. Duer Irving were with Mr. and the moving spirits at the Twenty Third

Annual Performance for Metropol-

itan's Emergency Fund. The Metropolitan Opera Company's inual performance for its emergency fund was given yesterday afternoon before an audience which filled the house. The programme consisted of the kerscene from "Faust," with Mr Sundelius and Ellis and Messrs. Harrold, Mardones, Werrenrath-and d'Angelo, Mr. Volff conducting; the mad scene from "Lucia di Lammerm with Miss Scotney and Mr. Martino, Mr. Papi conducting; the triumphal scene from "Aida," with Mmes Ponselle and Matzenauer and Messra, Kingston, scenery that might have been carried atic tenor, has been engaged for the re- and Matzenauer and Messrs. Kingston, opening of the Royal Opera at Covent Didur, Chalmers and Tangelo, and Garden, London. The engagement was closed by cable, it was announced here the ballet, Mr. Moranzoni conducting. cable, it was announced here the ballet. Mr. Moranzoni conducting, without sensible loss to the majesty of Muzio, Messrs. Caruso, Zanelli, Bada

The performance, as a whole, moved

Miss Brice Rents in Newport. NEWPORT, R. I., March 15 .- Miss

Miss Bara Fails; 'The Blue Flame' Lacks in Thrills

Cinema Star a Disappointment in Spoken Melodrama, Which Is Usually Dull.

Mr. Thomas Milbank, who passed the winter in Lakewood, are again at the Alan Dinehart
Jack Gibson
Donald Galjaher
Miss Helen Curry
Kenneth Hift
Miss Thale Lawton
Miss Theda Bara
Earl House
De Witt C. Jenkins

Miss Bara spoke the words that George

V. Hobart and John Willard had se-until three dramatists supplied the oper frame for Miss Bara's talents.

to revere the Bara genius with their yes and not their ears are mistaken in binking that she has been seen only "in pictures," as the jargon puts it. A stu-dent of the Empire School of Acting, she appeared with Francis Wilson for a season and acted for a while in the pas-toral plays of the Coburns. This was with a past. Since the movies are of vampire. The school is almost her own and in this field she has been pre-em-

Miss Bara Herself.

So it was in such a character that

But he could not restore the soul.

away in a blue flame. Then the hero-ine, encumbered no longer by this pos-audience more and more with every

Scenes in Chinatowni

Miss Bara really seemed too wicked to prise when it turned out that these ter-be true. There was naturally little sur seemed sometimes as if they were delib-herself. The play is abysmal in tre seven years ago at a special mati-turned vampire but subsequently be-

TO HONOR JUSTICE PHILBIN.

tend Funeral To-Day.

The various parts of the State courts

lor played the role of a woman came possessed of a soul.

In this drama Miss Laurette Tay-

he theatre.

was merely dull.

Cemetery

succeeding scene.

nent.

Then she began to be known as

The final meeting for this season of he Cathedral sewing class will be held his morning at the home of Mrs. Stephen Clark, 46 East Seventleth street. class for the social service of St. Luke's iospital will meet with Mrs. Charles S of them from the screen. Last night had Burch at Bishop's House, Amsterdam venue and 110th street, and that for the benefit of Mother Katharine Drexel's at 15 East Ninety-sixth street. none too expressive voice, judging by the demeanor of the excited audience.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ziegler, Jr., have taken for next summer the camp of Mrs. Anson Phelus Stokes, on Birch Island, Upper St. Regis Lake.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

New York.

Mrs. Burke Roche will give a luncheon

Mrs. Douglas Robinson will give birthday party to-day for her grand-daughter, Corrine Alsop.

Mrs. Lucy Cooper Hewitt will go to

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew wil return from St. Augustine late this

Miss Ella Milbank and her brother home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Miss Dorothy Kane, who has been

guest of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker,

ir., is dividing her time between Tuxedo

Europe the middle of April.

Dunlevy Milbank,

Park and New York.

Miss Barbara Baker Loew, eldest faughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Goadby Loew, will be married to Mr. Edwin Main Post, Jr., on the afternoon of May 6 in St. Thomas's Church. A reception will be held at 262 Madison avenue.

T. marriage of Miss Audrey Town end Riker, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Riker, Jr., to Mr. Samuel Sloar Walker, will take place on the afternoon of April 6 in the Church of the Incarna-A reception at 339 Madison avenue will follow clin ceremony

Miss Margaret Wilson left Washing on yesterday for New York.

Major-Gen. and Mrs. William Crozler ili give a dinner this evening for Prince and Princess Cantacusene-Sperinskey, who are guests of Mrs. Henry F. Dimock and who will leave Wash ington late to-night for New York Mrs. Dimock entertained them last night at dinner.

Mr. William E. Gonzaies, United States Ambassador to Peru, was among the guests at a bridge which Brig.-Gen. and Mrs. T. Q. Denaldson pave last evening for their guest, Mrs. Grant Carpenter of New York.

Senator and Mrs. Claude Swanson have returned from a stay in Florida.

Mrs. Francis E. Warren, wife of Sena-tor Warren, and Mrs. Lawrence C. Phipps have gone to Hot Springs, Va. Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh and Mrs. John ellan Dougherty have returned Washington from New York.

Newport.

Mrs. James J. Brown will arrive at ner villa in Believue avenue the first week in April. She is at present at Rear Admiral Herbert O. Dunn. U. S. N., arrived from Boston yesterday, to renain until Saturday.

Diplomatic.

The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand were among the guests at the dinner which the Minister of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes and Mme. Slavko Y. Grouttch gave last evening for their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Van Rennselaer of Philadelphia.

The Argentine Ambassador and Mme. Tomas A. Le Breton gave a dinner last night, the Ambassador of Peru and Mme, F. A. Pezet being among the guesta.

Mr. Jan G. Masaryk, Charge d'Affaires of the Czecho-Slovak Legation, returned to Washington from New York rible adventures were in reality only opening performance of the Washington was certainly converted from such irre-Opera Company when "I Pagliacci" was ligious ideas as he had entertained.

Miss Bara is a sad disappointment as an actress. All the thrill in the play New York Telephone Company, died yes from Bolivia to the Second Pan-American Financial Conference, and Senora erately "kidding" the public and the de Tejeda are in Washington at the drama. Miss Bara spoke in a thin voice New Willard.

merstein's Victoria-but New York lives RECITAL BY RAYMOND HAVENS Yesterday there came to the Palace Planist Plays Schubert's Seldem Heard "Wanderer."

Raymond Havens, pianist, gave a re cital yesterday afternoon in Acolian was generally remantic and his playing was that of an artist chiefly in sympathy with music of what is called the were romantic type. His central group was gold composed entirely of Chopin numbers. wrapped in green uniforms, with gold composed entirely of Chopin numbers, facings, and thatched with hair and but in his first group he followed a piece beards that, placed on the market, would by Rameau and a sonata of Scarlatti warrant income taxes. They burst into with nothing less than Schubert's "Wan-

This composition is not heard often choice of performing it as a plane sole or as a piece for plano and orchestra. and yet they pass it by for the sake of extraordinary creations of palpitating moderns. The "Wanderer" fantasia one of the tone poems of the plane, and for this reason Mr. Havens is to be thanked for including it in his list. It is a pity that he could not impart more vitality to his performance of it.

He played it delicately, reflectively, and - he more introspective passages with has Eddie Swartz and Miss Julia breathed great rushing drafts of outdoor life, the voice of the open road, Mr. Havens found a singularly cramped mass of requiem will be sung at 11 utterance. He sang of the moor and mountain as might a scholar much given o midnight oil. Yet even thus Schubert's tone poem had value and the nearers hung upon its phrases with manifest delight. If Mr. Havens could give more freedom to his style he might become an interesting planist. His fingers are nimble and his tone is musi-What he needs is a wider range cal.

of dynamics and more confidence. Walter Hampden in "Hamlet."

That ever loyal if ever diminishing clan of lovers of the classic drama greeted Walter Hampden in "Hamlet" in the Lyric Theatre last night and showed by its applause that both bard away on a pushcart sufficing for the Mr. Hampden played the Dane with an unrelaxed tensity, and in his scenes of frenzy struck a responsive chord Miss Beatrice Maude, as Ophelia, impassioned flights of rhetoric. The Companden demise of Polonius (Allen N. J., Thomas) did not give the usual happy

FRANCIS BLESSING, FIRE HERO, IS DEAD

Was Head of Rescue Squad and Often Risked Life in

Lieut. Francis Blessing, an honor man of the Fire Department and head of the Rescue Squad, died yesterday of pneumonia at St. Laurence Hespital. He was 35 years old.

Perhaps the most heroic bit of work of Lieut. Blessing was on October 5, 1918, when a serious explosion occurred Celebrities of the cinema refuse like on the submarine O-5 in the New York the good children of former days to Navy Yard. Lieut. Blessing, with be seen and not heard. They must Thomas Kilbride and John Donohue, speak. Evidently the tone is golden, then firemen, but now lieutenants, went since the entrepreneurs of the theatre into the burning vessel and brought out ore forever luring the most famous the body of Ensign N. J. Sharkey, who een killed by the explo

A. H. Woods beckoned down to the spite of the fact that the submarine stage Miss Theda Bara, whose glory is seacocks were open and her hold filled altogether celluloid. There was an im- with hydrogen gas, making her susmense anxiety to hear her thin and ceptible to a second explosion any monent. In recognition of this act Lieu: Blessing was awarded the Bennet! Medal last year. Lieut, Blessing's name has appeared seven times on the honor roll of the ected to recite the story of "The Blue Fire Department. He first attracted Clame," a melodrama in four acts. the attention of superior officers Further back there was another play which suggested the work in which January, 1912, when he and two other fremen made an unsuccessful effort to Miss Bara appeared. Mr. Woods was evidently not in a hurry. He waited escue three men from the roof of the ourning Equitable Building. At ime he was serving as a chauffeur to the department. It seems that those who have learned Blessing was appointed to the depart ment in 1907 and was detailed as hauffeur for Chief Croker. He made famous old red automobile that used to whiri up Broadway at reckiess speed in early days of the automobile. When Chief Kenlon succeeded Chief roker Blessing remained as chauneur as Theodosia do Coppet. Later she went for a while, and, upon the organization to England, but returned after a short of the Rescue Squad, in March, 1915, he was transferred to that body as a fire what had been in the theatre the woman nan and later succeeded Lieut. Benjanon F. Parker as head of the squa he minute, she was there known as the Lieut. Blewing lived at 365 Cy press avenus. The Bronx. He was taken il about ten days ago, having exposed simeelf while attending the funeral serices and burlal of his mother

Mr. Woods commissioned his dramatists DAVID MAYER DIES: to put her in person before the public. The heroine of "The Blue Flame," who AIDED MARY GARDEN had been a plous person, lost her soul It was not through carelessness. Her materialistic lover made good his boast of power to restore life to the body. He and Wife Financed Noted Singer's Education. this particular case the soul floated

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALI Chicago, March 15.—David Mayer who through his wife financed Missession, set out on a career of ground and lofty vamping which amazed the Mary Garden's musical education, died to-day at St. Augustine, Fla., according despatches received here to-night It seemed, for example, as if she could He went to Florida for his health sev ot possibly be wickeder than she was eral weeks ago. n the boudoir of the second act. Al- of his death is not known here, ready she was planning to rob a young woman of her affianced lover. But once Born in Germany in 1851, Mr. Mayer ame to America when a boy, found em she got the youth for herself it seemed doyment in a dry goods store and in as if she were still less restrained by the 1372 entered the real estate business mplest scruples of a vampire. Then all He had become wealthy when Miss Garhands turned up in Pell street, which is den first came on the horizon of the for any but an inquisitive stranger on Mayer family. a rubberneck wagon a sure indication of ago, when Miss Garden was a choice moral turnitude. It seemed the thing singer. Mrs. Mayer became interested that she and her new lover wanted most in the young singer and her wonderful was to be found in its best estate in voice. Mr. Mayer was indulgent and Chinatown. They went there to patron- Mrs. Mayer took Miss Garden into her ize its most popular industry. Smoking own home and engaged a teacher fo coke never did improve anybody's morals. her. Later Mrs. Mayer took her pro own home and engaged a teacher for This party was no exception to the rule tegee to Paris, where she underwent and the vamping grew monstrous in its ong course of study, for which Mr.

Mayer paid. After Miss Garden won success to Hammerstein's opera in New York the So in this third act, with its two scenes Mayers are said to have withdrawn amout Chatham square, there was the their unstinted patronage. Miss Garis a said to he der followed and later along came the in New York and the latter asked police. Never was the importance of the return of the money she and Mr possessing a soul by every woman made Mayer had spent. Miss Garden pale clearer. But, after all, the spectators re-alized that such excessive loss of moral and for a time a heated controversy scruples is, even in the case of a practive was waged in the press between the two tised vampire, not likely to happen often. women.

E. F. SHERWOOD DEAD.

and last evening entertained at the dream by her materialistic lover. He Was Vice-President of New York Telephone Company.

Senor Teleda, for some time delegate had been put there by the authors. It terday at his home in Glen Ridge, N. J He was born in New York on Septem ber 28, 1862, and had been connected the telephone company since with without eloquence. Even her gestures possess no significance, and her facial June, 1879. For many years he was head of its traffic department. He ther expression sent no shivers down the spine. Evidently the camera is the only became chief engineer, and in October 1919, was made a vice-president of the medium through which she can express company. ligence and all that touches the art of

THOMAS J. SULLIVAN.

Alan Dinehart, Kenneth Hill, Miss Thomas J. Sullivan, known as "Bla Thats Lawton and other well known Tom" Suilivan, and one of the oldest actors were concerned in the attempt to district captains of the late "Big Tim" make the evening plausible. But only Sullivan, died yesterday at his home at rare intervals was "The Blue Flame" 217 First street. He was foreman carmake the evening plausible. But only ridiculous enough in its serious scenes in the Street Cleaning Depart to be laughed at heartily. Usually it ment and for many years held the same position in the office of the President of the Borough of Manhattan. He Owen Davis, playwright, attended the performance with his attorney to see whether "The Blue Flame" bore any resemblance to a play of his called "Lola," produced at the Lyceum Thealeaves four children.

SMITH DECKER.

Smith Decker, acting Mayor of Buter, N. J., and for more than twenty years editor of the Butler Argus, died last night. Six years ago he was elected Roberts some months ago became acting Mayor. He was to have been the Democratic candidate for the office this fall He was born near Butler in 1876. He leaves his wife and one daughter. Jurists of State Courts Will At-

ENGAGED.

DIED.

Levy, Martin D.

Livingston, S. H.

Meurer, Albert

Montanye, B. L.

McGowrie, Mary

Parry, Mable A.

Schwab, H. M.

In Memeriam.

Sherwood, Edgar F

Steers, Catharine E.

Weiner, Leopold 8.

Gordon, Florence

Philbin, Eugene A.

idedary, Sarah H.

will be adjourned this morning in orde HUL/TOREN-SHAW .- Mrs. D. . Shaw that the Justices may attend the funeral service for Justice Eugene A. Philbin in St. Patrick's Cathedral. A solemn high of Pittsburg announces the engage ment of her daughter, Margaret, to o'clock. Interment will be in Calvary holm, Sweden, on Saturday, March The Justices of the Appellate Division

Janssen, Mable G.

Klappert, Emil W.

Andre, Harold A.

Kerr, James F.

MARRIED. of the Supreme Court with whom Justice Philbin was associated at the time of is death will be the honorary pall-ADAMS-SKIRVIN,-Mr. W. B. Skir bearers. After the funeral service vin announces the marriage of his Appellate Division Bench, First Departdaughter, Marguerite, to Mr. Robert J. Adams on Monday, March 15. ment, will meet to take appropriate In all the civil and criminal branches of the courte in Manhattan and The Bronx yesterday eulogies in memory of Aulick, Alfred F. the dead jurist were spread upon the Beer, George L. Renson, Sophronia Chekanow, Albert

HARPER PENNINGTON.

Costley, John Elsberg, Rebecca BALTIMORE, Md., March 15 .- Harper ennington, a well known artist, dled Fitz Gerald, C. M. here to-day at the age of $5. He be-Fleischman, L. W. onged to a prominent Maryland family, Gerdte, Charles L. his mother being a descendant of Charles Greenwald, Daniel J. Pincus, Rosa Carroll of Carrollton, a signer of the Declaration of Independence. Mr. Pen-Grinnell, Sarah E. Pitt, Mabei nington spent much of his time at New-Guilford, Elizabth A. Quinby, C. J. Haight, Edmund F. Salomon, Anna port and New York. Mr. Pennington is Hicks, Carolene M. Schnurer, Meyer survived by four daughters. Hirsch, Sophle

PETER SHOPPER.

Peter Shopper, for thirty years supersmoothly and it was evidently greatly melted the audience to compassion, but intendent of the bonding department of the fidelity and Casualty Insurance seemed to stir Mr. Hampden only to the Fidelity and Casualty Insurance intendent of the bonding department of Kutz Caroline Company, died at his home in Bogota, N. J., Sunday night. He was an ardent prohibitionist. He served for several Gilchrist, Anna T. Mayer, Joseph Whitney, Mrs. Wortimer L. Springs, Mrs. T. Reid Frazee have reHelen O. Brice to-day leased through
Louise Alger, Mrs. William
Mrs. J. Stevens Ulman, Miss
Mrs. J. Stevens Ulman, Miss
Mrs. J. Stevens Ulman, Miss
Mrs. Beld Frazee have reHelen O. Brice to-day leased through Messrs. De Blois & Eldridge the Bancroft came dangerously near causing a laugh with his slide trombone elocution. The survived by his wife and two married Mrs. T. Reid Frazee have reHelen O. Brice to-day leased through Messrs. De Blois & Eldridge the Bancroft
cottage at Easton's Point for the coming
Mrs. Henry R. Sedgw&k,
Mrs. Burke Roche,

Several months in Central Europe.

Newport, B. L. March 15.—Miss relief, and Ernest Rowan as Laeretes years in the Bogota Borough Council
Messrs. De Blois & Eldridge the Bancroft
cottage at Easton's Point for the coming play will continue through the week,
Mrs. Wysong, Mrs. Burke Roche,
Several months in Central Europe.

DIED.

Mrs. Julius Beer.

BENSON.-At Montclair, N. J., Sunday March 14, 1920, Sophronia, widow of Charles W. Benson, in her 80th year. Funeral services will be held at her late home, 86 Elm st., Tuesday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock, CHEKANOW.-Albert, age 18, Monday March 15, 1920, after a brief illness beloved and only child of Samuel and Anna Chekanow. Funeral Wednesday, 11 A. M., from late resldence, 910 Riverside Drive, to Cedar Grove, Mount Hebron Cemetery, Flushing, L. I. COSTLEY .- At East Orange, N. J., Sunday, March 14, 1920, John, husband of Catherine Costley, in his 43d year. Services at his late home, 74 Beech st., Tuesday evening, March 16, at 8 o'clock. Trains leave D., L. & W., Hoboken, 7:30 P. M., for East Orange station.

ELSBERG.—On Monday, March 15, at her residence in the Hotel Majestic in her 78th year, Rebecca, widow of Albert Elsberg and beloved mother of Herman, Charles and Nathanie and of Bertha Oppenheim. Notice of funeral hereafter.

ITZ GERALD .- Catherine M., on Saturday, at 5 P. M., at her residence, 318 West 101st st. Funeral on Tuesday, at 10 A. M., thence to the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, 71st st. and Broadway, where solemn mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of her soul at 10:00. Automobile cortege. Interment private. Kindly omit flow-

FLEISHMAN.—On March 15, in his 72d year, Louis William, beloved hus-band of Ray, nee Leibermuth, and devoted father of Walter, Louis A., Irma Lustgarten and Montifiore. Funeral from the chapel of Saul A. Rothschild, 159 West 129th st. Wednesday, March 17, at 2

HERDTS .- On Monday, March 15, 1920 Charles L. Gerdts, age 71 years. Fu-neral services will be held at Ivins D. -Applegate's funeral parlor, 225 Washington st., Hoboken, on Tuesday evening, March 16, at 8 o'clock GREENWALD .-- At his residence, 930

West End av., on March 15, in his 64th year, Daniel J., beloved husband of Emma D. and devoted father of Daniel J., Jr. Funeral services from the chapel of Saul A. Rothschild, 159 West 120th st., on Tuesday, March 16, at 8:30 P. M. Interment at Rodeph Sholam Cem etery, Philadelphia, Pa., on Wednes-day, March 17, at 12 o'clock noon. Topeka (Kan.), Minneapolis (Minn.) papers please copy. GRINNELL,-On Monday, March 15,

1920, Sarah E., beloved wife of Cor nelius Grinnell. Services at her late residence, 1111 Dean st., Brooklyn on Tuesday evening, March 16, at 8 Interment at Fairhaven Mass. GUILFORD.-Elizabeth A., daughter of the late John and Mary M. Guilford. Funeral from John J Fox's funeral chapel, 1908 Bathgate av., Wednesday, 9:30 A. M. Requiem mass at Church of St Martin of Tours, 182d st. and Belmont av., 10 A. M. HAIGHT.-Edmund Frost.

March 14, at his residence, 539 West 113th st. Funeral services Tuesday evening, March 16, 8 Funeral private. St. John's Lodge, N. 1, F. and A

Chas. H. Hamilton, Master. C. Arthur Sambleson, Sec. HICKS.-Carolene M., widow of John

Interment private. 168 East 105th residence.

New Rochelle, N. Y., March 18, 1926 George M. and Mary Quimby.

beloved son of Matthew Kerr and Catharine. Funeral from his late residence, 243 West 59th, on Thurs-Malachy's Church, West 49th, where fered Interment Calvary Cemetery LAPPERT .- On Monday, March 15, of Mary Klappert, nee Mantel. Puneral service at his late residence, 873 West End av., on Wednesday, 8:45 P. M. Interment private. KUTZ.-Caroline, widow of Abraham, heloved mother of Rose, 153 West

Wednesday, 11 A. M., at J. Mill

heiser's, 1460 Lexington av. EVY .- At his home, 50 East 92d, after afternoon at 2 o'clock.

dence, on March 15, 2464 Grand av., Fordham. Funeral notice later. MASON .- March 15, at his residence st., near 3d av. Interment Woodlawn Cemetery. Auto cortege. SEDARY .- On March 15, at her resi dence, 500 West 122d st., Sarah H. wife of the late Charles F. Medary

MEURER.-On Saturday, March 13, 1929, at his residence, 126 West

MONTANYE .- On March 14, at her rest Ascension, 5th av. and 10th st.

Wednesday afternoon, March 17

West 71st st., George Louis Beer.
husband of Edith C. Beer and son of husband of the late Jane Ferris Peck. Funeral service at his late home, 682 East 18th st., Brooklyn, HILBIN.-The Trustees of St. Cathedral in the City of New York.

> at the death of their former com panion, Hon. Eugene A. Philbin. Mr. Philbin resigned his office as Trustee in 1913, on his appointment > every sphere of his unselfish and fruitful life, were marked by intelligence, sincerity, self-forgetfulness > produced so much that was lasting and beneficial that the Board takes consolation in the knowledge that his spirit will continue with his old companions in the permanent good his achievements and in the en-

York, March 15, 1919. The American Irish Historical Sobin, a member of this society, Mem bers are requested to attend the requiem mass, on Tuesday, March 16, at 11 o'clock A. M., at St. Pat-

Vice President General, Santiago P. Cahill,

Secretary General Members of the New York Council. 124. Knights of Columbus, are requested to attend the funeral of our late brother, Eugene A. Philbin, from his late residence at 63 West 52d st. to St. Patrick's Cathedral

Members of New York Council, K. C., are requested to meet at Cathedral College, Madison av. 51st st., at 10:45 A. M., March 16, 1920, then proceed to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend funeral mass of late Justice Philbin. Joseph T, Ryan, G, K. Members of the Catholic attend funeral services of the late Eugene A. Philbin on Tuesday. March 16, at 11 o'clock, St. Patrick's Cathedral. Thos. F. Farrell, Pres. Edward A. Arnold, Sec'y.

M., announces with deep regret the death of Brother Edmund Haight, on Saturday, March 14, at his residence, 530 West 113th.

M. Hicks. Funeral services to be held at Christ Church, Franklin av., New Brighton, Staten Island. Wednesday, March 17, at 2 P. M.

TRSCH -Sophie, mother of Augusti Webb and Martha Wagner, in her 71st year. Funeral from her late Wednesday, March 17, at 1:30 P. M. Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Mable G., beloved wife of Harry W. Janssen and daughter of the late neral service at St. Paul's Church, Mayflower av., New Rochelle, on Tuesday, 2:30 P. M. Interment at convenience of family. Carmel (N. Y.) papers please copy.

CERR.-On March 15, James F. Kerr. Cathafine Kerr, nee Short, and brother of Matthew, Marjorle and March 18, at 9:30 A. M., St. a solemn requiem mass will be of-

Emil W. Klappert, beloved husband 120th st.: Milton, Maurice. Funeral

a very short illness, on Monday, March 15, 1920, Martin D., dearly beloved husband of Alma Levy, nee Hollander. Funeral on Thursday IVINGSTON .- Suddenly, at her resi

Susannah Hiblt, beloved wife of William A. Livingston and daughter of the late Rev. Charles J. Holt of 240 East 74th st., Charles Mason. Funeral Wednesday, 10 A. M. Requiem mass 10:30 A. M. at the Church of St. John the Martyr, Funeral Friday.

94th, New York city, Albert Meure in his 72d year, husband of Adelaide C. Funeral services at Trin-ity Chapel, 25th st., west of Broadway, on Tuesday morning, March 16, at 10:39 o'clock. Interment at Kensico Cemetery.

dence, 240 Waverley place, Bertha L. Montanye, beloved member of the Henry Street Settlement and daughter of the late Wm. H. and Ellinbeth Montanye. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, March 16, McGOWRIE -- On Sunday, March 14.

Mary McGowrle, for many years a faithful and valued friend in the and Mr and Mrs. Richard H. Reed Service at St. Patrick's Cathedra! Tuesday, March 16, 2 P. M.

ARRY .- Mable A., beloved wife of GORDON .- In loving memory of our Carroll A. Parry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brooks, on March 13, of pneumonia. Funera! will be held at the residence of Harvey Brooks at Stony Point, N. Y.,

DIED.

on Wednesday, March 17, at 8 P. M.

adopted the following minute:

The Trustees record their sorrow to the Supreme Court of the State, but for years before that time had been a cherished associate. His efforts on this Board, as in and industry.

He worked in so many fields and durlag record of his example, GEORGE B. McGINNIS, Clerk. Borough of Manhattan, City of New ciety announces with deep sorrow the death of Hon, Eugene A. Phil-rick's Cathedral. John J. Lenehan, at 11 A. M., March 16, 1920. Joseph T. Ryan, G. K. John T. McConnell, Recorder.

city of New York, are requested to

It is with a feeling of deep regret that the members of the Advisory Board of the New York Foundling Hospital have learned of the loss of one of its members in the death of Hon. Justice Eugene A. Philbin The members of the Board are requested to attend the funeral. Henry Heide, President.

Benjamin Rush Lummis, Secretary. In the death of Hon, Eugene A. Philbin the Xavier Alumni Sodality has lost a wise commellor, a loyal member since 1876, and its president 1917-1918. Justice Philbin's death deprives the community of the services of a distinguished and self-sacrificing citizen and the Benchand Bar of a learned jurist, dalists are expected to attend the requiem mass for the repose of his soul at St. Patrick's Cathedral on Puesday morning at 11 o'clock Charles Edward Nammack; M. D.,

James J. McNierney, Secretary,

INCUS .- Rosa, relict of Marcus Pincus, dearly beloved mother of Leo and Felix. Funeral Wednesday after-noon, March 17, at 1:30 o'clock sharp, from the parlors of Wiffler & Reich, 127 West 116th st. Kindly omit flowers. Members of the Kurnick Benevolent Association are urgently requested to attend the funeral of Rosa Pincus, Wednesday, 1:30 Reich, 127 West 116th st. By order of M. M. Lisso, President. Geo. Samuel, Secretary.

PITT .- Mabel (nee Mabel Parson), age 41, on March 14. Funeral Tuesday, March 16, at 2 P. M., from 36 Kingsland av., Elmhurst, N. Y. Boston papers please copy. QUINBY.-Suddeniy at White Plains,

N V. March 12. Charles J. Quinby, in his 89th year. Funeral service will be held at his late residence, Post road and Sound View av., on Tuesday at 3 P. M. Kindly omit flowers. SALOMON, - Anna, widow of Jeseph

Salomon and mother of Mrs. P. M. Stewart, on March 15. Services The Kuneral Church (Campbell Building), Broadway at 66th st., on Wednesday, March 17, at 11 A. M. SCHNURER --Members of Krakauer Society. Rofel Cholim, are invited to attend funeral of Meyer Schnurer from Tauber's Chapel, 492 East 74th m. Tuesday, March 16, 10 A. M. N. Wolburg, President. D. Keppler, Secretary, SCHWAB. - Henrietta Margaretta, daughter of the late Gustav and Catherine Elizabeth von Post Schwab, at her residence, 119 West 55th st., New York, of pneumonic Service at the March 14, 1920. Church of the Holy Communic

20th st. and 6th av., Tuesday, March

16, at 11 A. M. It is requested that no flowers be sent. SHERWOOD. - Edgar F., husband of Lucy B. Sherwood, on Monday, March 15. Services at his late home, 372 Ridgewood av., Glen Ridge, N. J., on Wednesday, March 17, at 3:45 P. M. Train leaves Erie Station, Jersey City, at 3:01 P. M. Interment private.

reers.-Catharine E., nee Menke, in her 75th year. Services Wednesday, March 17, at 1:30 P. M., at the residence of her sister, Lizzie A. Stears, 174 West 79th, Interment private, SEMANN,-Suddenly, at Madison, N. J., March 13, 1920, Jane A., wife of

Julius H. Susmann. Funeral : rivate. VEINER.—Suddenly, at Miami, Fla. Leopold S. Weiner, beloved husband of Carrie, noe Hoas, and father of Mildred Leopold. Funeral at convenience of family.

IN MEMORIAM.

NDRE - In loving memory of our son, Lieut. Harold A. Andre, who died in the service of his country, Marca HELDERIST -- Anna T., nee Hellrerty, In constant and sacred memory of a noble, dearly beloved and most de-voted wife, whose soul departed one year ago after a long illness to bravely endured, who enswered the oyes in this her last alhaven of eternal peace. happiness where there is ... pal-Anniversary mass at the Church of St. Paul the Apostle, 60th st. and Columbus av., Wednesday, March 17, 1920, 9 A. M.

daughter Florence. Gone but not forgutten.

MAYER.-In sad and loving memory of our beloved ausband and father, Joseph Mayer, who departed this life March 16, 1910. Our hearts will ever mourn for thee.